2 Who comes here, and what do they need?

New grid

Audience / Visitor Type	Why are they here?	What action do we want them to take?	What do they need to understand before acting?
Walkers	To learn about upcoming walks Music and language references Where do I show up (starting location, next starting spot) Learning protocol	Sign up and let us know when to expect them Learn how to share the Nibi Walk story appropriately Share photos with us
Off Season Walkers	Looking for community Loved a past walk and wish for the feeling again Opportunities to stay plugged into care for the water	To grow their relationship with Nibi beyond the walks Some activities they can do Buy the Nibi Songs CD (or download from Bandcamp)
Potential Walkers	They are wondering if they are capable and welcome to participate in a Nibi walk How does it work? What is it? Why are people doing it?	Learn and prepare themselves To do their homework (this is nuanced and may still be ambiguous) How to show up self-sufficient	Introduction to learning in an oral tradition Be prepared for the gift culture flow of the experience Know the eight fire prophecy What can I share? Original name(s) of the river
Donors	They were asked via email and social posts	Give money	How much money we need to raise before a big walk Relationship to IPTF The different giving tools Walkers are not paid -- they are talking leave from their jobs
Walkers in Spirit -- Praying from afar	Cause they are so inspired They want to feel connected A lot of people have a strong affinity to water that is not developed into something they can articulate People are caring deep concern, and experiencing existential grief for water	Add their prayer to our prayer Share the message Feel encouraged and a sense of hope	How to add their prayer How to respectfully share the message How to recognize official channels (like the Monks' site mentioning official ways to donate)
People providing material support for walks	They were referred to the website via an email or social post They want to help	Communicate with us any housing or food resources they want to share	Who and how to contact Understanding the high-degree of flexibility needed to play with us
People curious about indigenous leadership regarding water	To Learn Who are the leaders How did water walks begin? The walks Sharon has led	Create accurate "sound bites" about the walks People excited walkers are coming through town Know how to find press releases about the walks Buy the catalog for the exhibit from the website	Know about: Sharon and Sara have a poetry and song schtick they do in towns if asked To know you won't understand until you do it
